TITLE

Translation — from pool —

The hither to Elgasser Street (in itself an unimportant street, on which the east Berlin police H.Q.'s has been discontinued, but which is otherwise a typical quiet little street in north Berlin), became known from the occasion of the 75th birthday of the President of the German Democratic Republic as "Wilhelm Pieck Street". It was probably intended to share the memory of the Alster.

The street corner, from an easterly direction, with one of the typical wooden booths for the traffic policeman.
